

The Magic Day

by Will McVey
December 11, 2009

It was a Magical time at Crystal's – Little Frankie's Birthday!

He'd waited all year for his birthday magic show and finally it was time to begin. The most famous magician in the town was there to thrill the young audience with his magic...
Christopher Lyle, the coolest magic penguin in the world.

It was an afternoon filled with magic cards, a special magic wand, and magic coins. Frankie's favorite magic trick was when Christopher Lyle swallowed the famous flaming marshmallows! When the kids saw the marshmallows, they got hungry. They shouted, "We want pizza! We want pizza! We want pizza!"

When Christopher Lyle looked around, he was surprised to find that the pizza chef had left for the day. What to do??? He doesn't make pizza. He only makes magic. Then a thought came into his magical head, "Ah! I can make pizza with my magic!"

So he took the magical top hat off of his head and pulled out... a rabbit!? It did make the kids laugh, but they kept on shouting, "We want pizza! We want pizza! We want pizza!"

Next, he pulled out his magic cards. But that wasn't right, either. And the kids kept shouting, "We want pizza! We want pizza! We want pizza!"

He thought very hard, "Think, think, think! I need to focus on my Hocus Pocus!" So he grabbed his magic wand and stirred inside the top hat. He sang, "Pizza... Pizza.. Make a pizza..."

Before long, a giant hot pizza appeared from the top hat. The crowd went nuts! They had never eaten a MAGIC pizza before. Little Frankie cheered and told Christopher Lyle that it was the best pizza he'd ever tasted before in his life.

The End.